ZOEACUPUNCTURE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

INFORMED CONSENT TO ACUPUNCTURE TREATMENT AND CARE

I hereby request and consent to the performance of acupuncture treatments and other procedures within the scope of the practice of acupuncture on me (or the patient named below for whom I am legally responsible) by licensed acupuncturist , Zoe Meininger.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to, acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, electrical stimulation, Tui-Na (Oriental Massage), Oriental herbal medicine, Gua Sha, nutritional counseling, and lifestyle recommendations. I understand that the preparation, ordering and shipment of herbal supplements and formulas will take time and may require waiting up to a few days. Prescribed teas, herbs, and formulas need to be consumed according to the instructions provided orally and in writing. The herbs may have an unpleasant smell or bitter taste. I will immediately notify Zoe Meininger of any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with the consumption of the herbs and/or supplements.

I have been informed that acupuncture is a generally safe method of treatment, but that I may have some side effects, including bruising (especially on the face), numbness or tingling near the needling sites that may last a few days, and dizziness or fainting. Bruising is a common side effect of cupping. Unusual risks of acupuncture include spontaneous miscarriage, nerve damage and organ puncture, including lung puncture (pneumothorax). Infection is another possible risk, although this clinic uses sterile, disposable needles and maintains a clean and safe environment. Burns and/or scarring are a potential risk of moxibustion and cupping. I understand that while this document describes the major risks of treatment, other side effects and risks may occur. The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plant, animal and mineral sources) that have been recommended are traditionally considered safe in the practice of Oriental Medicine, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some herbs may be inappropriate during pregnancy. Some possible side effects of taking herbs are nausea, gas, stomachache, vomiting, headache, diarrhea, rashes, hives, and tingling of the tongue. I will notify Zoe Meininger, or a clinic staff member, who is caring for me if I am or become pregnant.

I do not expect Zoe Meininger, or the clinical staff to be able to anticipate and explain all possible risks and complications of treatment. I wish to rely on Zoe Meininger to exercise judgment during the course of my treatment, and will rely on what she thinks is best at the time, based upon the facts then known, is in my best interest. I understand that results are not guaranteed.

I understand that Zoe Meininger, and the administrative staff of ZoeAcupuncture, may review my patient records and lab reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my written consent.

By voluntarily signing below, I show that I have read, or have had read to me, the above consent to treatment; have been told about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures and have had an opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.

Education and Experience

Zoe Meininger earned her Masters of Traditional Oriental Medicine degree from Emperor's College of Traditional Oriental Medicine in October 2011. This four-year program consists of 3210 instructional hours, or 224 didactic units, and 970 hours of clinic training, including a clinical externship at the UCLA Arthur Ashe Center under the supervision of Dr. Robert Chu, PhD, L.Ac., QME. Zoe was certified as a Diplomate of Oriental Medicine by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) in December 2019. This includes certification in Clean Needle Technique, Acupuncture, Biomedicine, Chinese Medical Theory, and Chinese Herbology.

Zoe's training includes adjunctive therapies such as moxibustion, cupping, Tui Na, acupressure, auriculotherapy, Gua Sha, and dietary and lifestyle recommendations.

Zoe is a licensed acupuncturist in the states of California and Colorado. Her California license is currently on "Inactive" status. None of her licenses or certificates has ever been suspended or revoked.

This clinic complies with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Colorado Department of Health, including the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles and of all adjunctive acupuncture tools, and the sanitation of acupuncture offices. Only single-use, disposable, factory-sterilized acupuncture needles are utilized.
